Spectacular grace in fine bone china

Dance of the Dolphins ...

a superbly hand-crafted work of art.

They are the playful children of the sea, diving and weaving through the waters, disappearing beneath the waves. Then, reappearing from the oceans depths, they leap for joy in a spectacular display.

Now, all the grace of these marvellous animals is portrayed in a work of art in pure white bone china and a touch of gold. Dance of the Dolphins is a showpiece of elegance and enchantment. Brooks & Bentley artistry beautifully interprets the sleek lines of the Dolphins, the tossing waves, the sense of ease and pleasure in their world. Dramatic at any angle, your sculpture will have its own gleaming black lacquered base to show it to its best advantage.

Dance of the Dolphins is available for £75.00, in five convenient interest free instalments. To acquire this Brooks & Bentley original, please respond by 31st March, 1993. If you prefer you can order by telephone, call 0732 363086 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

MARCH ON TO THE VERY BEST FROM CABLE!

You'd better take a seat and prepare for Liza Minnelli and Julie Walters who go Stepping Out; and grab a hanky for the month's big weepy, Dying Young with Julia Roberts and Campbell Scott; plus there's Rik Mayall mayhem in the premiere of Drop Dead Fred; plus Billy Crystal goes cattle-rustling in the comedy premiere of City Slickers and don't miss the scorching movie premiere of Backdraft starring Kurt Russell... yes, it's all happening on cable in March!

There's quite a lot to talk about on the non-movie scene — take a look at the Videotron Pick on Cable on the next two pages, where there are details about the return of two of your favourite programmes, one a brand new series and the other gives you another chance to see one of the Galaxy's most popular hitchhikers!

Plus there's the clever Videotron competition winners and another great competition — see page 4.

Mr Tomlins of Peckham is all set to make the descent of his life as he prepares for a parachute weekend with those experts of aerial artistry, The Red Devils. Mr Tomlins (and partner) is the grand prize winner in our Extremists competition, worth over £250, published in the customer pages of the January Cable Guide.

Eurosport/ESN's exclusive live coverage of the spectacularly exciting sport of indy car racing opens with Nigel Mansell's first challenge in the Indy Car Grand Prix straight from Surfers Paradise, Queensland, Australia, on 21 March, at 3am.

Eurosport/ESN will broadcast all 16 races live and exclusively throughout the year, following the series from California to Canada, Arizona and Wisconsin.

Performance Channel gets a boost

The Performance Channel featuring the very best in jazz, opera, ballet and classical music is now available in FM stereo on 92.1 MHz.

Sharon Gless (left) stars in The Trials of Rosie O'Neill, a new series seen on Sky One for the first time this March. The series follows the two worlds of Rosie O'Neill, a recent divorcee who has given up her Beverly Hills law practice to work as a public defender in downtown LA. The series takes a realistic and courageous view of the issues of modern life as Rosie begins her career working with the people of the street while she maintains her life-style in high society.

The Trials of Rosie O'Neill starts on Sky One on Tuesday 23 March at 9pm.

LA's most prestigious law firm, McKenzie Brackman, is back on screen with a brand new series of LA Law to be seen exclusively on Sky One. Starts Wednesday 3 March at 9pm, weekly.

Yes, that visually spectacular cult series is back on UK Gold, presenting your chance to see a complete re-run of the Hitch-hiker's Guide to the Galaxy. (see picture above) Tuesdays at 10.30pm and Sundays at 11pm from 23 March, only on UK Gold.

Screensport and Eurosport will merge on 1 March to form a new-style channel called Eurosport/The European Sports Network. Screensport's final transmission takes place on Sunday 28 February.

The new channel will combine the best programming from both channels, providing one channel with the cream of sporting events.

It is believed that most of Screensport's popular sports coverage, namely NBA basketball, NFL American football and extensive golf coverage, will continue transmission on the new channel.

Meanwhile, Eurosport/ESN has acquired the exclusive screening rights of the 1993 Indy Car World Series (see Videotron Pick on Cable).

Eurosport/ESN will continue transmission on channel 12.

BOX

E Street

Sky One weekdays
1.00pm, 6.30pm

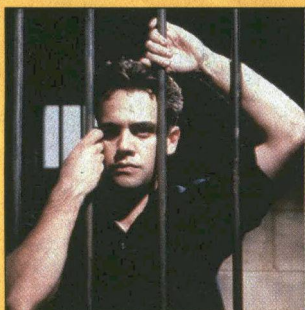

SOAP BOX put it to actor Richard Huggett that his E Street character Sonny Bennett is a psycho.

'Yeah, just a little bit,' he replies.

Just how 'little' can be seen during this month's instalments when Sonny's saga takes a violent and explosive turn.

'He was in jail for armed robbery,' Richard recaps. 'When he comes out he says he wants to go straight. But he's really bent on revenge. He's had five years of thinking about getting back at the people who put him there.'

The tragic events that engulf Sonny's lust for revenge are revealed in two episodes on 23 and 24 March that make E Street look like a bad day in Dodge City.

Sonny's insane plan centres on planting a bomb in Bob's car, a reckless murder bid that endangers the lives of several innocents. The bomb goes off but who gets killed? Soap Box doesn't want to give too much away but suffice to say that Westside is emotionally devastated by the crime.

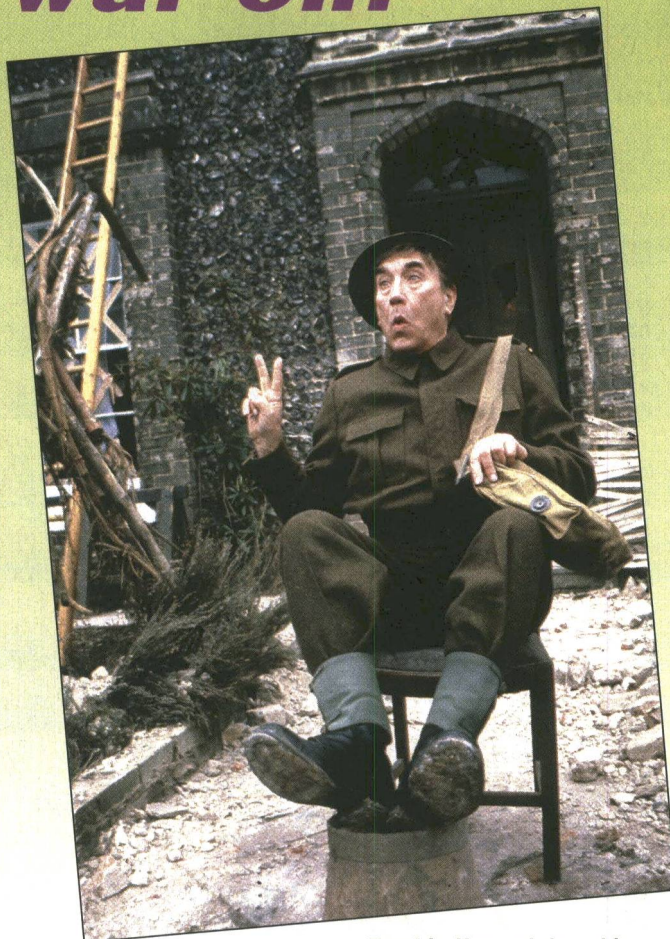

And that's not the end of it! Further tragedy ensues in Sonny's final confrontation.

Richard, who also pops up as Glen Donnelly in Neighbours, says his crazed character nearly became a reformed man who settled down to normality.

'The producers asked where I wanted to go with the character and said where they wanted it to go,' Richard reveals. 'There was talk of making him a "regular" character but it was just silly because he had nowhere to go. He could only go down further.' ■

Don't titter, there's a war on!

Frankie Howerd does his bit for the war effort

Then Churchill
Said to Me

UK Gold, Mondays 10.30pm

IMAGINE THE setting: Britain is in its hour of greatest peril standing alone against the might of the Nazis.

Masterminding the Empire's war effort from a bunker under Whitehall are Prime Minister Winston Churchill, his top military advisers – and Percy Potts.

Percy who? To find out watch Frankie Howerd playing this unsung witness to history in Then Churchill Said to Me, which is receiving its premiere on UK Gold.

The series, the last that Howerd recorded, was actually made in 1981 but was deemed unsuitable for showing during the Falklands conflict. The comedian had achieved cult status among a new generation of young fans before his death last August and UK Gold has decided now is a good time to dust off this unseen show.

The opening episode is called 'Operation Panic'. Private Potts, a Batman to a high-ranking British army officer, mixes up his superior's leave form with those for a manoeuvre called Operation Suicide. In ensuing weeks Percy uncovers Dai the Spy and later allows the regimental mascot goat to chew up some secret orders. This latter setback results in a mix-up that places General de Gaulle in the Tower of London. No wonder the war lasted six years. ■

Tuesday 8.00pm)

THE STARS will be out on 29th March for the ritziest, glitziest night of the year – the Oscars.

Hollywood heavyweights like Jack Nicholson, Michelle Pfeiffer, Tom Cruise and Geena Davis will be gathering for the 65th Academy Awards at the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion to salute and be saluted by Tinseltown.

The Movie Channel (Monday 29th, midnight) and MTV (Saturday 27th, Sunday 28th) will be previewing the big event and looking at the nominees. What's more, Sky Movies Gold is presenting an Oscar-winning movie every day in the week before the big event.

So what were the films that cable television's film critics most enjoyed or loathed this year?

LBJ: The Early Years

HVC, Sunday 7th 8.00pm

WITH EVERY other character of the Kennedy era already featuring on large and small screens (JFK, Hoffa, Ruby, Lee Harvey Oswald etc), it's only fitting that the great man's deputy gets a share of the limelight.

LBJ: The Early Years follows lanky 26-year-old Lyndon Johnson, played by Randy Quaid, from his marriage to shy Texas belle Lady Bird Taylor through to his narrowly won seat in the Senate and finally to the White House itself when JFK's assassination brings him the Presidency.

This two part biopic also stars Patty Lupone as Lady Bird Taylor and Kevin McCarthy as Joe Kennedy. ■

The Luke of love!

Beverly Hills 90210

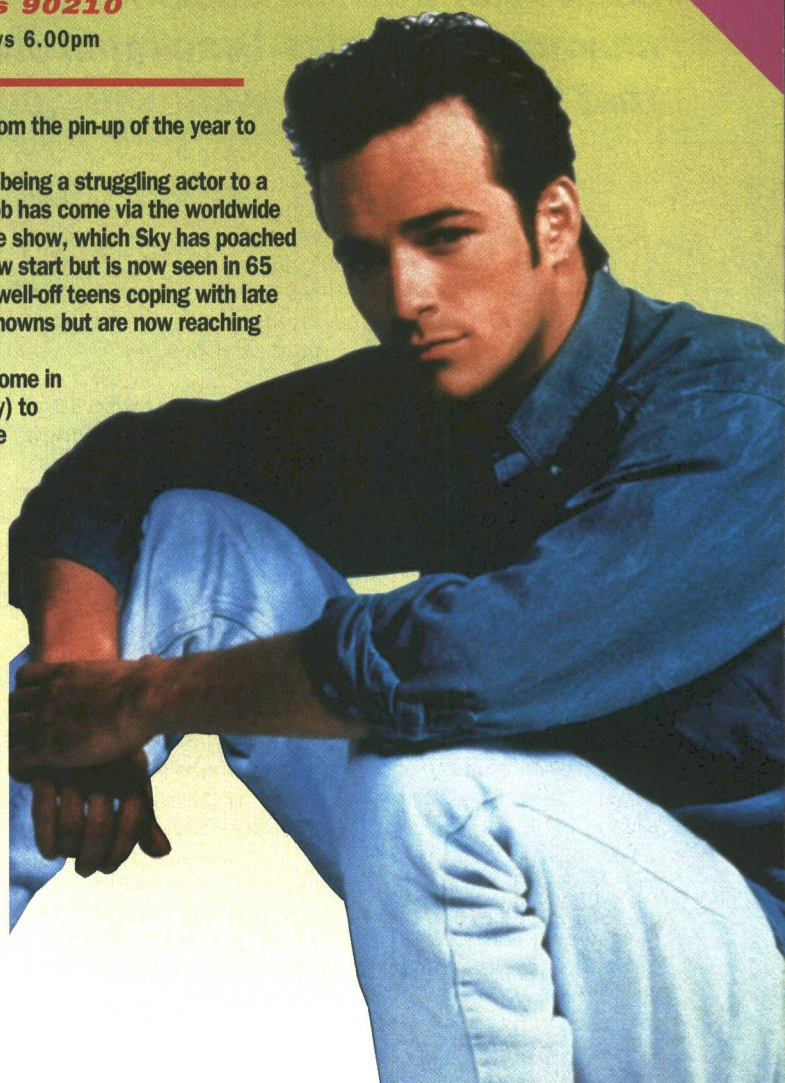

Sky One, Saturdays 6.00pm

HE HAS BEEN called everything from the pin-up of the year to the new Paul Newman.

Luke Perry's stunning rise from being a struggling actor to a 2000-fan-letters-a-week heart-throb has come via the worldwide hit drama Beverly Hills 90210. The show, which Sky has poached from ITV, originally got off to a slow start but is now seen in 65 countries. The actors playing the well-off teens coping with late adolescence were all cast as unknowns but are now reaching millionaire status off the show.

Perry was 17 when he left his home in Ohio (Newman is another Ohio boy) to make it as an actor. After a couple of hundred rejections he finally worked his way into the US day-time soaps Loving and Another World. He got off to a shaky start as millionaire teen playboy Dylan McKay in 90210 as the Fox network moved to fire him. The programme's executive producer Aaron Spelling stood up for Perry and he survived to achieve major star status in 1992.

Though grateful to Spelling, Perry is now rumoured to be itching for a move into bigger things. Hollywood has already been knocking at his door and Perry is now preparing for a promising leading role. The 26-year-old star will portray champion bull-rider Lane Frost. The story of Frost's rise to the top of the rodeo world and his sudden death starts rolling this month. Watch out! ■

show on earth

Oscar potential? 'Love Field' starring Michelle Pfeiffer

real acting piece. Al Pacino, who is a favourite actor of mine, was brilliant. I was very impressed. That's my favourite film.

'Wayne's World was very silly. That was what I loved about it. And Howards End was very good. Anthony Hopkins is a superb actor, and he's also a fellow Welshman, so he gets my vote.

'Husbands and Wives was engaging. I liked the camera work, which was sort of hand-held and shaky, although I hear lots didn't. It was very, very good indeed.'

Worst: 'I'm quite easily pleased. There aren't many films where I come out and say, "That was diabolical".

'However, there is one exception. The Bodyguard was abysmal, just the pits. And yet it was so popular! Whitney Houston was good but the plot left gaping holes. It was just so corny.'

CHARLOTTE DE VLAMING
Film Europe, Super Channel

Best: 'The year has been incredible for European films: Les Amants du Pont Neuf (France), Best Intentions (Sweden), The Stolen Children (Italy), Howards End (UK) and The Northerners (Holland).

'From the US: Reservoir Dogs was very good. It should have a chance of a best screenplay Oscar. The Player will definitely win something. Unforgiven has a really big performance from Clint Eastwood.'

Worst: 'Last of the Mohicans I hated. That was really dreadful. Naked Lunch was pretentious.'

GIA MILINOVICH
TVFM, The Children's Channel

Best: 'Barton Fink - quite simply it's so brilliant it's my in my top 10 films of all time, possibly my top five! I loved it. I loved it. I loved it. Thrice. It's definitely a "me" film. JFK: I saw it four times in the cinema and bought it the day it came out on vid. Brilliantly directed by Oliver Stone. Fantastic!'

Worst: 'Revenge of Billy the Kid. It only got shown in a few cinemas and went straight to vid. It was bad but so bad I liked it. Carry on Columbus - yawn. Julian Clary was brilliant though. ■

Alan's a law unto himself!

As the new series of 'LA Law' comes to Sky One, actor Alan Rachins briefs Kevin Wilson about his character, Douglas Brackman Jnr, and the news that he is willing to work with toupees!

LA Law
Sky One
Wednesdays 9.00pm

MOST ACTORS manage to shrug off the character they play on screen the minute they drive out of the studio gate. But not Alan Rachins of LA Law.

Rachins, the imperious, arrogant and seriously balding senior partner Douglas Brackman, who seems to push his thin nostrils into a room ahead of him, as if to smell the place out and make sure that the chairs haven't been soiled by the seat of anyone who makes less than $100,000 a year, goes straight home to actress Joanna Frank, who has an on-off role as his ex-wife Sheila on LA Law.

At the end of the last series seen in Britain, the sparring couple – she hates him too much to allow him a divorce and instead piles on the agony with a succession of public affairs – were due to remarry, but Rachins is remaining tight-lipped about the outcome of that particular storyline.

It was thanks to Joanna's family connections that the couple ended up on one of America's top-rated series – she's the sister of LA Law and Hill Street Blues creator Steven Bochco, who saw them starring together in Henry Jaglom's 1985 film Always, while he was writing the very first script.

'To Steve,' says Rachins, 'I was Brackman and Joanna was his wife, Sheila. After all the lean years I was in high-paid, steady work.'

The first thing the couple, celebrating their 15th wedding anniversary this year, did once LA Law took off in the ratings and it was commissioned for a second series was to leave their pokey, rented house in West Hollywood and move to a ranch-style home complete with pool and lemon trees.

Bochco and his wife of 26 years, actress Barbara Bosson, who played captain's wife Fay Furillo in Hill Street Blues, and has made several guest appearances in LA Law (nothing like keeping it in the family) live nearby.

'The mover who picked up our stuff in West Hollywood, took one look at the new house and said, "You know, Alan, this is a BIG step up for you."'

Rachins can joke about that now, but like the other stars of LA Law, the show has brought him wealth and recognition. It's a thousand miles from one of his earliest breaks in the naked revue Oh Calcutta!, when he lived on the breadline in a 10ft square apartment in a block where fellow struggling actor Al Pacino was the superintendent.

Bochco has his own theory for the show's success. 'There's lots of humour with the occasional tragic thread. But it's not about always keeping despair at arm's length as it was on the Hill Street Blues.

'LA Law is more true to life than Hill Street. Most people don't interact with the police except when they're robbed or they get a speeding ticket, whereas – in America at least – everybody deals with the law. We are the most litigious society in history. I can only guess at the numbers who get sued or sue somebody. And yet lawyers are the least trusted profession, right up there with politicians.'

The last series of LA Law took a serious dip in the American TV ratings for the first time and Bochco, who had handed over the day-to-day writing and planning to others, returned to tighten up the scripts and dispose of characters because the regular roster had grown too big. The result was a massacre and a cliffhanger ending.

Out went three of the biggest stars who had been in the show since episode one: Harry Hamlin and Jimmy Smits to pursue movie careers and Susan Dey to try her hand at comedy, while Britain's Amanda Donohoe walked out on her bisexual character CJ Lamb. Panic set in among the rest of the cast, wondering if their contracts would be renewed for another year.

Rachins, however, had nothing to worry about, but he knows that anything can happen in the future. 'People say LA Law is a 10-season series and this is our seventh. I enjoy the money but have not been as prudent with it as Brackman.'

The show has also given him the chance to star in other projects during his annual summer break, including the movie The Mistress and in the stage musical La Cage aux Folles.

That experience, however, gave him an even bigger shock than some of the recent storylines involving him with a sex therapist in LA Law.

'I thought I was playing the "straight" leading man but only found out at the meeting to sign the contract that the part I had accepted was Zsa Zsa the transvestite star of the nightclub La Cage aux Folles. I remember giving out a silent scream inside, then went shopping for stiletto shoes and wigs! It was a lot of fun.'

Hairpieces are, he says, the key to his future success, an insurance against typecasting for the day when LA Law's lawyers pack away their briefs for the last time.

'Let's face it, romantic leads have certain requirements and I let producers know that I work with toupees. I don't need them socially anymore but I keep a wardrobe for professional purposes. It's a case of have wig, will travel.' ■

Alan Rachins

CASE HISTORY

- LA Law has won more than 20 major awards
- The show, which began in 1986, is now watched in 78 countries
- Real-life LA Law stars Michael Tucker (Stuart Markowitz) and Jill Eikenberry (Ann Kelsey) had to consult psychiatrists because they were jealous of each other's success
- The cast is insured for $20million against accidents
- Corbin Bernsen (Amie Becker) had a childhood fantasy to become a lawyer
- Blair Underwood (Jonathan Rollins) landed his first professional job on The Cosby Show just two days after arriving as a young actor in New York
- Steven Bochco, who created LA Law, Hill Street Blues and Doogie Howser, MD, has a $50million contract with 20th-Century Fox TV to produce 10 new shows over the next 10 years. The first was the ill-fated police musical series Cop Rock, which was pulled off the air after just 10 weeks

Country lovers

JUST want to say how much I enjoy Country Music Television. My youngest son is seven and it's his favourite (after kid's TV, of course). He really likes Tanya Tucker and she is one of my favourites too. My only complaint is we should have some of the older country singers (Boxcar Willie, Dolly Parton) on instead of having all the new country stars. But I still enjoy it. Keep up the good work!

Maureen Pirie, Aberdeen

I AM WRITING to congratulate cable TV on the Country Music Television channel. Some of the songs are wonderful to listen to. I would also like to congratulate UK Gold. I love seeing some of the old programmes coming back.

Keep quiet, Sky!

I AM A big movie fan but I am very disappointed. Why does Sky, which says it shows uninterrupted movies, have an announcer interrupt the end credits during its movies spoiling the enjoyment of the music with annoying comments of what's on next? They advertise their movies all day long in between movies and on other channels, in newspapers not forgetting the listings in Cable Guide. I would like the interruptions

I AM A very big fan of Star Trek and Star Trek: The Next Generation. I never fail to miss any of the episodes or films. Is there a Star Trek fan club?

Since UK Gold started I really am hooked on it. I love watching programmes like Shoestring, One by

One and Terry and June. I was wondering if there are plans to show Blake's Seven and Survivors. As a football fan I like Sky Sports, especially on Sundays. The only channel I don't like on cable is Country Music Television.

Who's hot and who's not in the WWF – John Greenfield reveals all!

Wrestling Week

WWF action can be seen at times listed below. Live cricket or football on Sky Sports may alter the schedules so check our listings (starting page 50) or the Sports Diary (starting page 174).
SATURDAY Sky One: 12noon, 5.00pm 10.00pm. SUNDAY Sky One: 12noon. Sky Sports: 1.00pm.
THURSDAY Sky Sports 6.05pm. FRIDAY Sky One: 9.00pm. ■

HELLO, FANS, and welcome to Powerslam, your ultimate behind-the-scenes look at the wrestling world.

Much news to report. WWF superstar RIC FLAIR is rumoured to be negotiating a return to the ranks of the WCW. This story is substantiated by a news reporter stateside who saw Flair in the company of senior WCW promoters. But my sources (which will remain anonymous) tell me Ric Flair is in fact in negotiation with Jim Crockett promotions, the former owner of the NWA/WCW circuit. I can confirm the man himself Jim Crockett is looking to restart the NWA. However, at the time of this publication no details are forthcoming.

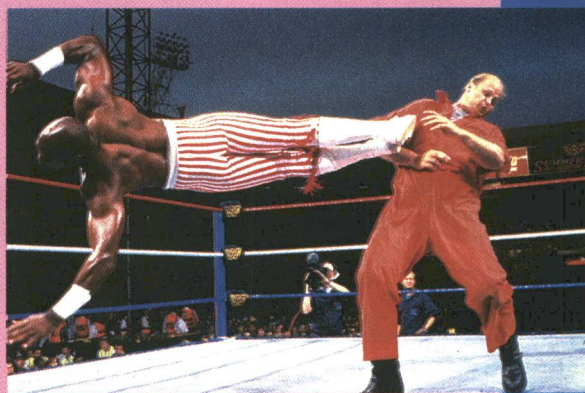

MAX MOON, aka the Atomic Kid aka Kato, has departed the WWF circus – sorry, I mean circuit. It seems he was unhappy with his comic book image and has terminated his own contract.

Former WWF star the BRITISH BULLDOG has been approached to join the television programme Gladiators, but he refused the offer and is currently a guest of the WCW circuit. DYNAMITE KID, the Bulldog's old tag partner has reappeared and – again this is a rumour – could be back with the Bulldog in the WCW circuit.

The ULTIMATE WARRIOR has surfaced on the East Coast of America and is wrestling for an un-named independent circuit under the name of JIM HELLWIGG and, in brackets, 'The man who was the Ultimate Warrior'. As far as I am concerned he still is and will always remain The Ultimate Warrior.

While on the subject of legends – HULKMANIA, where has it gone? Update! Update! The WWF has approached Hulk Hogan to return to its circuit offering substantial monies and limited venues; sadly he declined. The movie world has got hold of the Hulkster and it would seem he does not need the pressures of wrestling – or does he? Again I have some spies who tell me Hogan is considering a return to the WWF, if only to keep the Hulk Hogan legend alive. The WWF, with falling gates and loss of merchandise sales, see Hogan would be a valuable asset. I hereby launch the 'Bring back the Hulkster' campaign. Do you want Hogan back? Write to me with your comments. Better than that, write to the man himself c/o Cable Guide. I assure you all letters will be sent on to Hulk Hogan's agent in America. Let's get Hogan back!

Well, fans, catch you next month. Cheerio! ■

Rep City is in big trouble. Big Boss Graves, owner of the Plantation nightclub has plans to take over the city and turn it into a seedy town full of down and outs. And he is not alone. Accompanying him is his motley crew of reptile henchmen who are just dying for a fight.

Having tried all the usual law abiding tactics, the authorities finally turn to five apparently normal streetwise comics with an offer they can't refuse: either they help fight crime or their own club, The Dragon, will be closed down 'quicker than a rim shot at the end of a bad joke!' What else can they do but accept the cops' offer and start to clean up the city? ■

Saturday Nite Dance Ranch
CMT Europe, Saturdays
at 10.00pm

COUNTRY MUSIC TELEVISION has opened the doors to its very own 'private dance club'. Saturday Nite Dance Ranch is a brand new one-hour series in which CMT Europe showcases new, hip country music dances with a mix of up-tempo music videos.

Following the recent increase in dance clubs in the US (numbers have doubled to more than 1200), the explosion of country music videos, and also the spread of country music dancing in Europe, the ground-breaking all-music series features up to 18 dance-oriented videos an hour, including Billy Ray Cyrus's Achy Breaky Heart, Chris Le Doux's Le Doux Shuffle, Mark Collie's Collie Dog and other dance steps specially created for country music songs.

Other featured artists include Dwight Yoakam, Tanya Tucker, Marty Stuart, Clint Black, the Kentucky Head Hunters and Travis Tritt.

The show's opening and closing sequences were filmed at Rodeo's dance club in Nashville, where country music artists are often among the celebrity filled audience. ■

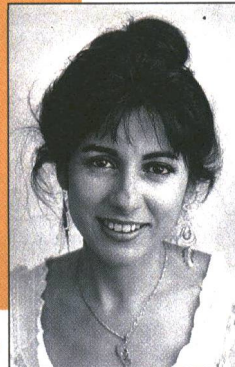

GUY CLARK hails from Monahans, West Texas, and is well-known to CMT Europe viewers for his grainy, tongue-in-cheek video Baton Rouge. His latest album Boats to Build also features the equally humorous Jack of All Trades and How'd You Get This Number, the slower Madonna with Child 1969 and I Don't Love You Much, Do I, sung with Emmylou Harris, and the beautifully crafted title track.

TISH HINOJOSA's latest album Culture Swing blends country with traditional

Mexican and Western swing, and includes Spanish language compositions like the socio-political Bandera del Sol, Corazon Viajero and Chanate, El Vacero. But there is also a hefty dose of country songs like Drifter's Wind, San Antonio Romeo and the song that was to become her first video, In the Real West, seen regularly on CMT Europe.

ALISON KRAUSS is the first established female star of bluegrass and one of country's most admired performers. CMT Europe viewers have seen her performing New Fool and the snow-bound Heartstrings from her latest offering Every Time You Say Goodbye, but the album also features a number of fiddle reels and pretty ballads, including a devastating instrumental workout on Cluck Old Hen and the silvery gospel plea Jesus Help Me to Stand. ■

This album sold more than three million copies world wide, and achieved platinum status in Germany, Sweden, Holland, Japan and Australia, as well as gold awards in Britain and the US where the title track was a smash hit.

MTV's special concert programme sees Gary in concert at London's Town and Country Club. ■

Is Mansell on

Formula 1 South African Grand Prix

Eurosport, Sunday 14th
12noon

NOT EVEN three-times world champion Alain Prost will be able to match Nigel Mansell's imperious performance for Williams-Renault last season.

John Watson, winner of five Formula 1 grands prix between 1976 and 1983, believes the Frenchman certainly has the edge over this year's field but that he will have a harder time of securing the championship than Mansell did.

'Prost has the potential to dominate but the difference in the individuals and the way they drive a particular car are quite marked,' says Watson.

'Mansell is a physically strong driver. He is courageous and extracted an enormous amount of performance from the car and the car required that kind of commitment from the driver.

'Prost is a driver of finesse, he is almost like an artist. People are saying now that Prost is World Champion. That is the most likely outcome but I don't think he will win the championship with the ease that Mansell did.'

All of which suggests a more gripping season. Watson, who will be commentating on the races for Eurosport, agrees. 'This is going to be a cracking season. Mansell going to IndyCars is a great loss but it might enhance F1. The dominance that Mansell displayed in the Williams was just so much above everyone else, it didn't produce the best show for spectators.'

The Englishman's departure will close the gap between Williams and the other teams, Watson believes. 'I want to see the championship being fought out down to the last chequered flag and I think that in 93 that is a real possibility because Nigel is no longer a part of F1. That is a compliment to Nigel.'

The new rules reducing wheel and tyre sizes, and the ensuing extra pit stops they will cause, could be another leveller this season. 'The idea was to slow the cars down,' says Watson. 'It puts pressure on the teams to make sure the pit stops are all smooth and fast. There is also going to be a lot of strategy coming into grand prix driving because it will be imperative to look after your tyres.'

Another intriguing twist to motor-racing in 93 will be the fortunes of Damon Hill, who is catapulted from Williams test driver to team-mate of Prost.

'For Damon it is the dream drive,' Watson says. 'He's shown great promise in testing for Williams. He has been quicker than Prost more times than Prost has been quicker than Damon.'

'He has only competed in a total of two grands prix so he is short of race experience.

The outcome for Damon will be dependent on qualifying and being able to keep clear of the competitors around him. If he can do those two things, he can win races.'

McLaren, with or without Ayrton Senna, and Benetton, with Michael Schumacher, are the main threats to Williams. And Watson picks a dark horse. 'There is one significant new team taking up F1. It's a Sauber team, which has been given unofficial Mercedes-Benz support. That team has got a good structure and good organisation.'

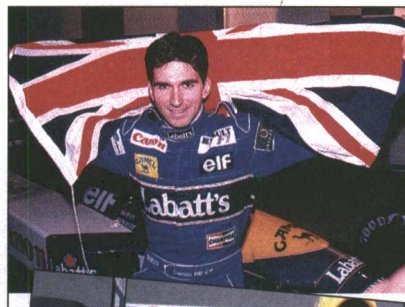

'They have got a car which has proved competitive immediately. They have got two young drivers [JJ Lehto and Karl Wendlinger] who are chargers. It could be an interesting, strong winning team!'

So would Watson like to be competing against the best again? 'Absolutely. I'm like any addict when their particular thing is taken away.' ■ ROBIN JAROSSE

Has there ever been a motor-racing season as anxiously awaited as this 1993 series? John Watson argues below that the daring move of Britain's hero Nigel Mansell to the IndyCar circuit should

IndyCar Grand Prix

Eurosport,
Surfers Paradise, Australia
Sunday 21st 4.00pm

IT IS A good thing that Formula 1 world champion Nigel Mansell likes a challenge because a controversial move like his one to IndyCars would have had many speed merchants hitting the brakes.

Don't go! That has been the message from the likes of former champion Keke Rosberg, Bernie Ecclestone, president of the Formula 1 Constructors' Association, and Derek Warwick, the World Sports Car Champion. Warwick wanted to see Mansell defending his title for Williams-Renault, while Rosberg and Ecclestone cite the dangers of the Indy scene.

Half of the circuits of the Indy season are banked ovals on which corners are taken at over 200mph. There is no room for error.

The words of Mansell's new employer, movie legend Paul Newman, are chilling enough.

'If you stop and think about it, at Indianapolis and all the high-speed courses you're never in the car travelling at less than 220mph and you're doing that between two walls of concrete.'

And then there are the cars. With their rear-mounted engines and pointed wings and noses the Indy and F1 speed machines look the same. But IndyCars generally lack the degree of research and technical finesse that goes into their grand prix counterparts. In short, the F1 car is safer.

The career of triple F1 world champion Nelson Piquet was wrecked in 1992 during a qualifying drive for the Indianapolis 500 in which he hit the wall. He will be lucky to walk normally again. The year also saw the death of Filipino driver Jovy Marcelo in a crash.

Emerson Fittipaldi also points out: 'To maintain the level of aggressiveness needed for a one-mile oval is more tiring mentally than any other race track in the world. Nigel has a great deal to learn and he must take it step by step.'

Mansell set some blistering times testing the latest Lola-Ford for the Newman-Haas team in Phoenix. He will surely want to be the fastest driver from the word go.

Mansell says: 'I have got no illusions at all. On some circuits I am going to be struggling, I'm going to be slow.'

'But I have got the ability to learn quickly and with the backing and support I will get, we will get there in the end.'

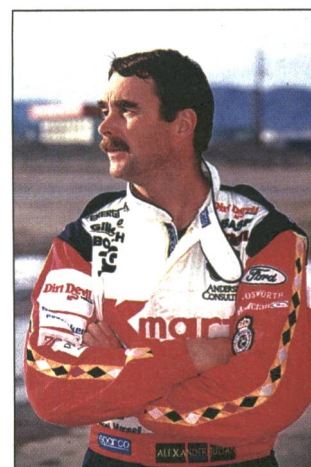

Mansell has many American friends and a luxury home in Florida. He believes he is doing what is best for his family and his career. But he is facing a stiff test of his abilities.

'I'm looking forward to a fantastic new future,' he says, unflappable as ever. ■

THE MATCH OF the month must be Manchester United v Aston Villa on Monday 14 March. Both teams are in the running for the first ever FA Premier league title, and playing some of the most spectacular soccer in the league.

Last season United won both league games against Villa by one goal to nil. Bruce scored the penalty away at Villa Park, while a single goal from Hughes in front of an Old Trafford crowd of 45,000 settled the return.

But this year Villa have had their

Title tangle

derby match of the season, following two Potteries derbies, local clashes from Sheffield, Manchester and Merseyside, an East Anglian derby, two London derbies and the Autoglass Cup clash between Cardiff and Swansea.

Meanwhile the England squad take their first trip abroad since September's friendly Spanish fix-revenge, beating United twice in the space of ten days back in October. Both fixtures in the Premier League and Coca Cola Cup were settled by single goals.

Since then Manchester United have risen to the top of the league and strengthened their squad with the surprise purchase of Eric Cantona to add further flair to the most exciting strike force in the Premier League: Sharpe, Giggs, Hughes, and McClair. But they will almost meet their match in Villa's Saunders, Atkinson, Daley and Yorke.

The Premier League match between Chelsea and Arsenal on Monday 1 March will be the tenth ture when they travel to Turkey on Wednesday 31 March for their fourth qualifying tie on the tortuous trail to the 1994 World Cup Finals.

England have played Norway, Turkey and San Marino at Wembley Stadium, but this is the first overseas tie in the six-nation ten-tie group. England's record against the Turks is excellent; they have yet to concede a goal in seven full internationals, scoring 27 times in their six victories.

In the last game at Wembley last year, Gazza returned to the international scene to inspire a 4-0 victory. But just two years ago England struggled in Izmir in a crucial European Championship tie. ■

THE CONCLUSION of a cricket tour ... and the start of another. England's Winter Tour ends with an obvious reminder of the political turmoil that scarred the start of the Indian tour. The first One-Day International in the six match series was postponed in January and then rescheduled in Gwailor as the closing match of the Tour on Friday 5th, so Gwailor will host two tour matches on successive days. And with the opening One-Day internationals resulting in one win each to India, the series will be decided in the first week of March. THE EXTRAORDINARY WEAPON OF THE LEGENDARY SHADOW WARRIOR.

SWORD OF THE NINJA

Ingenious and versatile.
Re-created in its full size, complete with a dramatic display and all its hidden secrets...

It was the Ninja-to. Sword of the legendary Shadow Warrior of Japan. As silent and mysterious as the Ninja himself. Like him, it had many secrets. For this sword's ingenious design concealed extraordinary things. Hidden daggers. Throwing knives. Even the scabbard converted into a spear!

Now you can acquire a dramatic re-creation of this astonishing sword. Its hilt and scabbard hand-wrapped in fine braiding and selectively accented with 22 carat gold.

The design atop the handguard symbolises the shuriken, the throwing star, an integral part of the Ninja's legendary original sword. Beneath this guard is a sculptured dragon. Both are plated with 22 carat gold, as are the other sculptures that grace the pommel, hilt, and even the hidden "knives".

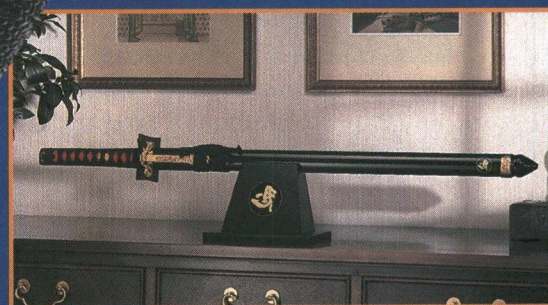

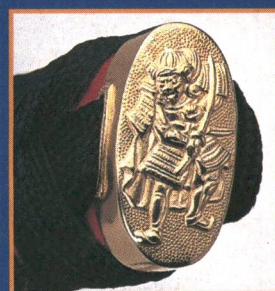

Since the crafting of such swords is virtually forbidden in Japan these days, the sword is being created by the master swordsmiths of Toledo, Spain, whose centuries-old tradition of fine craftsmanship has made Toledo steel the worldwide standard of excellence.

The sword work is available exclusively from Franklin Mint. The issue price of £395, payable in monthly instalments, includes the handsome display stand.

Shown much smaller than actual size of 36" (91.44 cm)
 in length.

DRAMATICALLY ACCENTED WITH 22 CARAT GOLD.
HAND-WROUGHT OF TEMPERED STEEL.

Top: the pommel sculpture depicts a Samurai warrior, once the Ninja's enemy, and is plated with 22 carat gold.

Bottom: displayed on its specially designed base, The Sword of the Ninja will be a dramatic accent to any decor or setting.

ALL-STAR ATTRACTIONS

KILLER CLOWNS FROM OUTER SPACE Sky Movies Plus Saturday 20th 8.00pm

A remarkable (and remarkably overlooked) horror item about a tentful of outer-space vampires who land on Earth disguised as demonic clowns. Setting up their carnival of horrors on the outskirts of town, the blood-hungry harlequins set about decimating the local populus, leaving a solitary brave couple to take them on. Plenty of smart, zany humour (the clowns hunting human prey with the aid of balloon sniffer dogs is one of the film's more inventive moments) and a deliciously nasty turn from John Vernon as the town cop.

LIFE STINKS Sky Movies Plus Sunday 14th 6.00pm

A hilarious comedy starring Mel Brooks as a greedy developer who agrees to spend a month on the streets as a homeless hobo in order to prove a point to a business colleague. Life among the down-and-out denizens of LA proves to be more trying than the cosseted businessman expected, although he does strike up an unlikely friendship with abrasive bag lady Lesley Ann Warren. As always with Mel Brooks, the gags, both verbal and visual, flow thick and fast, although the comedy is tempered by a dose of social-conscience raising.

PUMP UP THE VOLUME The Movie Channel Friday 12th 8.00pm

A sharply written youth drama about high school misfit Mark (Christian Slater), a shy, introverted student by day and a wild, uninhibited pirate radio DJ by night. Under the pseudonym of Hard Harry, Mark stirs up the students of Hubert Humphrey High, becoming a cult hero with his provocative late-night show, a mixture of off-beat music and obscene but insightful monologues.

STAR TREK - THE NEXT GENERATION: UNIFICATION The Movie Channel Sunday 7th 6.05pm

A special feature-length episode of the popular Next Generation series. An unauthorised and unexpected peace initiative forged with the Romulans gives the crew of the Enterprise cause for concern. When Captain Picard (Patrick Stewart) learns that Spock is on the planet Romulus for unspecified reasons he embarks on an undercover mission in a Klingon ship to discover the truth behind the political mystery. Also starring Leonard Nimoy and LeVar Roots Burton.

CHANCE OF A LIFETIME The Movie Channel Monday 1st 8.00pm

Bereft after the death of her husband, Evelyn Eglin (Betty White) enjoys a new lease of life when she is informed by her doctor that she has only six months to live. On a vacation in Mexico she meets widower Lloyd (Leslie Nielsen) and falls in love for the first time in 10 years.

IN BROAD DAYLIGHT Sky Movies Plus Monday 1st 10.00pm

Brian Dennehy plays Len Rowan, a small-town thug who terrorises an elderly couple when his daughter is involved in a misunderstanding in their store. When he callously guns down the husband in broad daylight, only to walk free on bail hours after his arrest, the townspeople band together to work out their own brand of justice.

TRIUMPH OF THE HEART Sky Movies Plus Friday 12th 8.00pm

A touching drama about a professional sportsman (Mario Van Peebles) who strikes up a friendship with a young handicapped boy (Lane Davis).

ULTRAVIOLET The Movie Channel Friday 5th 10.00pm

A nightmarish thriller set in the forbidding wastes of Death Valley which plays like a desert-bound Dead Calm. A young couple named Kristen and Sam (played by Patricia Healy and Stephen Meadows) comes across a dazed, incoherent camper (Esai Morales) while hiking through the desert...

Julia nurses her passion

Dying Young

The Movie Channel, Sunday 7th 7.00pm

IN DYING YOUNG Julia Roberts plays Hilary O'Neil, a young woman living in a suburb of San Francisco who leaves her unfaithful boyfriend in search of a new direction. She answers an ad for a live-in carer and is summoned to an interview at a mansion in the plush part of town.

She discovers that the patient is 28-year-old Victor Geddes, played by Campbell Scott, who suffers from leukaemia. Initially turned away by the boy's father because she has no nursing experience, she is hired by Victor and moves into his basement flat, not realising how close the relationship will eventually be. Directed by Joel Schumacher from Marti Leimbach's novel, it's a sentimental film that boasts star power and also addresses the troubling issues of disease and grief, particularly relevant in today's AIDS-obsessed culture. Ellen Burstyn, Colleen Dewhurst and Vincent D'Onofrio provide splendid support. ■

Movie Channel

Sunday 14th 8.00pm

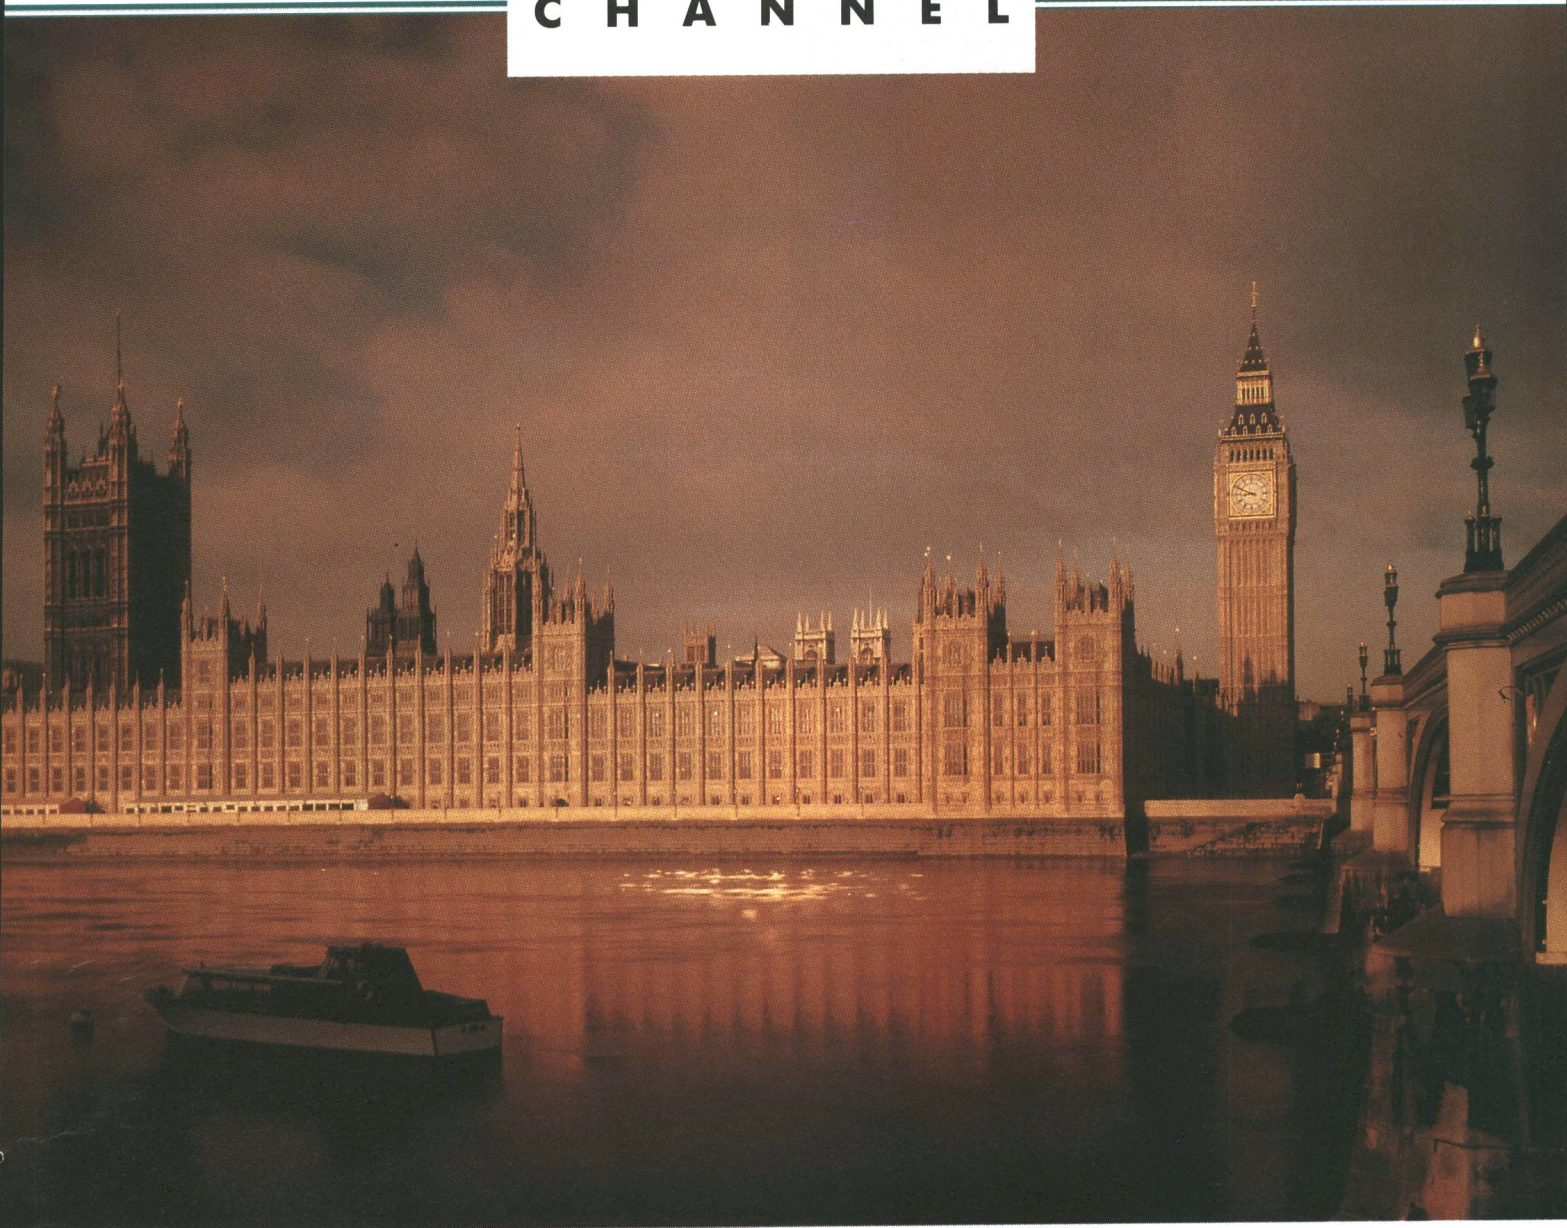

WHEN AN American naval helicopter is shot down by an Arab gunboat and its crew taken prisoner and tortured, the Navy SEALs commando team, led by James Curran (Michael Biehn) and Lieutenant Dale Hawkins (Charlie Sheen) abandons the wedding of their colleague Billy Graham and heads off to the Mediterranean to rescue its comrades. Here they become embroiled in bloody gun battles and destroy a Lebanese

Stinger missile store into the bargain. Crammed with sound and fury this latterday Middle East actioner also includes a fine performance from Joanne Whalley-Kilmer. ■

Ben Hur

They don't make them like this any more

Ben Hur

Bravo: Saturday 6th 8.00pm

■ There are several versions of General Lew Wallace's 1880 semi-Biblical adventure novel. There is MGM's lavish spectacular of 1926 directed by Fred Niblo and starring Ramon Novarro and Francis X. Bushman. This was reissued with sound effects in 1931. In 1959 MGM remade it, with William Wyler directing Charlton Heston and Stephen Boyd. However, the greatest praise went to Andrew Marton who directed the chariot race sequence.

This month Bravo is screening one of Hollywood's most extravagant historical epics in the form of William Wyler's 1959 production of 'Ben Hur'. Here are a few lesser known facts about the making of one of Tinsel Town's most opulent movies ■ Six 65-millimetre cameras were used to shoot Wyler's epic, which used 3,000 sets and 50,000 people.

■ In contrast to his earlier pleasant experience in Italy while making Roman Holiday in 1953, the financial condition of MGM and the sheer scale of production turned Wyler's life into a nightmare. For eight months he had no social life, working six days a week and reserving Sundays for script problems. By the time production was completed he was exhausted.

■ Like many epics, Ben Hur was extensively edited by the studio, being reduced from 1,125,000 feet to 23,838 feet, a ratio of 47:1

■ Although actually the story of ferocious rivalry between two former friends, one Jewish and one Roman, Wyler's epic was released with the subtitle of 'A Tale of the Christ.'

■ Wyler's Ben Hur cost $15million to make, and the ailing MGM studios gambled everything on its success. Fortunately this turned out to be greater than that of former box office champ The Ten Commandments, bringing in more than $80million in world wide rentals.

■ Ben Hur won 12 Oscars, the greatest number of awards ever taken by one film: Best Picture, Best Director, Best Actor (Charlton Heston), Best Supporting Actor (Hugh Griffith), Best Cinematography (Robert L. Surtees), Best Art Direction (William Horning and Edward Carfagno) Best Sound Recording

■ On its first TV screening in 1971 Ben Hur had the biggest audience of any film with an estimated 32,630,000 Americans tuning in.

▲ Charlton Heston as Judah Ben Hur

■ Rock Hudson, Marlon Brando, Burt Lancaster and Cesare Danova (who?) were the stars who were sought in vain by the producers for the lead before Heston was selected.

John Mills
Season
Bravo

Bravo is showing four films by one of Britain's most popular character actors, Sir John Mills.

Born in 1908, John Mills started his professional life as a clerk before making his showbiz debut as a song-and-dance chorus boy in a London Revue in 1929.

He moved on to the legitimate stage the following year and overcame his unprepossessing stature to enter films in 1932.

During World War II he developed into one of Britain's leading screen personalities, typically portraying stiff-upper lip low-key heroes.

He remained a popular star through the 1950s, when he switched to character parts, eventually winning an Academy Award as best supporting actor for his portrayal of a village idiot in Ryan's Daughter (1970).

Married to novelist-playwright Mary Hayley Bell, he is the father of actresses Hayley Mills and Juliet Mills, and continues to make film and TV appearances.

This month Bravo pays tribute to Sir John with four films from his transitional 1950s period.

Bravo: It's Great to Be Young Sunday 7th 8.00pm; Ice Cold in Alex Sunday 14th 8.00pm; Mr Denning Drives North Sunday 21st 8.00pm; Hobson's Choice Sunday 28th 8.00pm.

THIS MONTH'S HIGHLIGHTS ON SKY

MARCH 1993

LA Law

A new series coming
EXCLUSIVELY to Sky One in March.

THIS MONTH, SKY MOVIES PLUS screens the British TV premiere of explosive fire-fighting drama, Backdraft. Kurt Russell and William Baldwin star as Stephen and Brian McCaffrey, fire-fighting brothers whose sibling rivalry at work puts considerable pressure on their already highly stressful jobs.

In addition to the central plot about the McCaffereys, Robert de Niro plays an arson investigator, studying a string of deadly 'backdrafts' – explosive infernos, which are caused by setting fires in enclosed spaces and when starved of other nourishment, feeding them oxygen – which have been responsible for the deaths of several prominent businessmen.

Another premiere in March is New Jack City. Set in New York, the movie is the tale of a ruthless drugs baron, played by up-and-coming star, Wesley Snipes, who turns a housing estate into an impregnable drug manufacturing and distribution plant. Hot on his trail are two undercover cops, played by hip-hop star, Ice T and former Brat Packer, Judd Nelson.

The film was influenced by the tradition and romanticism of 30's gangster movies, but aimed to illustrate the effects of drugs on the inner city rather than glamourising the lifestyle of drugs dealers.

SKY MOVIES PLUS presents a season of films starring martial arts expert, Steven Seagal, Hollywood's hero of the moment. The season begins on Saturday 13 March with Seagal's screen debut, Nico.

SKY MOVIES GOLD begins its month of golden oldies with the infamous Bond spoof, Casino Royale. Based loosely on the Ian Fleming novel, the film stars David Niven, as the retired special agent forced back into service.

Also showing this month is the controversial film, Pretty Baby, starring Brooke Shields as a 12-year old prostitute.

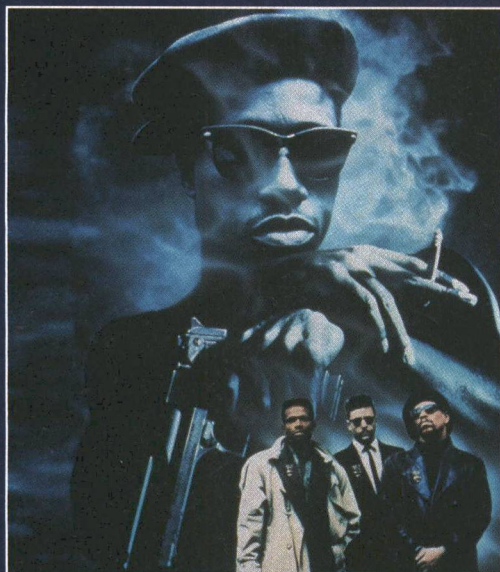

Prepare for a night of horror on Saturday 6 March when SKY MOVIES GOLD shows the classic A Nightmare on Elm Street, about a group of teenagers whose dreams are terrorised by Freddy Krueger.

THE ROCKETEER

HILARIOUS COMEDY, City Slickers makes its British Television premiere on THE MOVIE CHANNEL this March. The story traces the adventures of a dissatisfied 40 year old city professional, played by Billy Crystal, who signs up for a vacation with a difference – a cross country cattle drive, which goes disastrously wrong.

British star, Rik Mayall plays an imaginary friend who causes havoc in the crazy comedy Drop Dead Fred, also premiering this month. Mayall co-stars with American actress Phoebe Cates, as a young woman who blames her problems on her childhood make-believe friend. Dutifully, 'Fred' turns up to create even more chaos.

THE MOVIE CHANNEL screens a week of the horror movie series, Friday 13th, which follow the gory misfortunes of teenagers vacationing at camp Crystal Lake. Parts I, II, III and IV will be shown during the second week of March.

For the fourth consecutive year, SKY TELEVISION will broadcast LIVE from the annual Hollywood Oscars, to bring viewers all the excitement and glamour of the 65th Academy Awards. Billy Crystal will host this spectacular evening covering the proceedings from the arrival of the stars to the anticipation of the results.

To coincide with the Oscars, SKY MOVIES GOLD presents a week of Oscar-winning films to precede the night of the ceremony.

The special week begins with the 1966 adaptation of Joy Adamson's book about her life amongst the lions of Kenya, Born Free.

Sir David Lean's unforgettable Lawrence of Arabia, which won four Oscars will be screened as well as another of Lean's Oscar triumphs, The Bridge on the River Kwai. The latter won Oscars for Best Film and an acting Oscar for Sir Alec Guinness.

COMING EXCLUSIVELY TO SKY ONE this March is a new series of the award-winning American drama series, LA LAW. Acclaimed for its high writing and production standards, the show already has a huge following in Britain. For the new series, the infamous law firm of McKenzie Brackman has recruited several fresh faces as well as the already familiar characters of Arnie Becker (Corbin Bernsen) and Leland McKenzie (Richard Dysart).

Class of '96 is another new drama series, beginning this March. Filmed on location in Toronto, the storyline follows a group of incoming freshmen at a North American Ivy League college as they explore their hopes and dreams. As the seven students face new experiences together, they strive for the academic success which will shape their future.

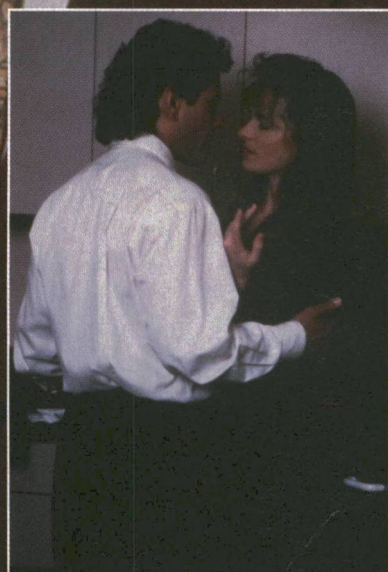

SKY ONE enters the 90's craze of videogames this month, with a brand new production, Games World. Transmitted daily, Games World promises to be essential viewing for video and computer game fans, offering excitement and fun for viewers and participants alike. Each night is themed with Fight Nights, against resident characters such as The Ninja, Big Boy Barry and Master Moriarty and a Live Night on Wednesdays, where the audience can play live on air by telephoning in.

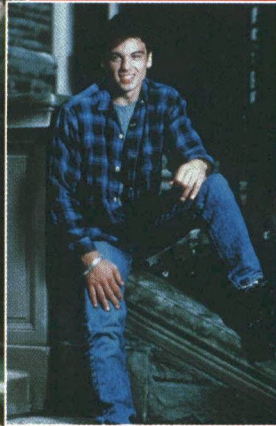

Joan Collins stars in a three-part drama mini-series on SKY ONE this March, Sins. She plays Helen Junot, the head of an international magazine publishing empire, whose success is greatly envied by enemies who seek to destroy her.

Films The Big Broadcast of 1937

The Movie Channel
12.00pm

A variety film starring such beloved performers of the period as Jack Benny, George Burns and Gracie Allen. Comedy and music mix together in the revue-style piece, strung together by the barest minimum of a plot about a radio broadcaster battling to save his ailing station. Music is provided by Benny Goodman, Leopold Stokowski and their respective orchestras. Also starring Ray Milland.

General Gabriel's Fire

Sky One 9.00pm
Former Chicago cop Gabriel Bird is convinced that he will spend the rest of his life behind bars charged with the murder of a fellow officer during a drug raid. But when Victoria Heller, an ambitious attorney, appears on the scene and re-opens his case, freedom becomes a possibility. Not only does Heller get Bird out of jail, she also gives him a job as her private investigator because of his underworld connections. What results is a tough, gritty detective series that challenges the duo's abilities each week. Starring James Earl Jones and Laila Robbins.

Sport German League Football

Sky Sports 1.30am
Alan McNally of Scotland and Bayern Munich is an excellent choice to guide viewers through the latest happenings from the Bundesliga. Action from the top games is presented by Peter Hutton with match commentary by Ian Crocker.

Mace

HVC 10.00pm

A tough streetwise cop and his partner investigate a series of apparently unrelated heroin deaths which leads them through a sleazy maze of arms dealers, blackmailers and international espionage to a serial killer with connections to a foreign diplomat working in the US. Starring Ed Marinaro and Darrell Larson.

General

Herbs for All: Herbal Medicine

The Learning Channel 12.30pm

Herbal medicine is the only medicine available to three quarters of the world's people. Non-addictive, holistic, gentle and effective are some of the claims made for this branch of alternative medicine. But what is the truth about herbal medicine? This programme looks at how qualified herbal practitioners work, what they can and can't prescribe and how the treatment works.

Sport

The Club Show

Sky Sports 6.30pm

Leeds United: League champions three times, runners-up five times, twice runners-up in the European Cup, FA Cup winners once and winners of the Fairs Cup twice. When you think of the honours and the characters - Don Revie, Jack Charlton, Billy Bremner, Johnny Giles, Howard Wilkinson - that have been connected to this famous club, this should be a fascinating programme.

Films

Child's Play 2

Sky Movies Plus 10.00pm
Chucky, the murderous knee-high children's doll returns to menace young Alex Vincent once more. After having seemingly defeated the foul-mouthed Brad Dourif-voiced toy in the original, the youngster, who now lives with foster parents Jenny Agutter and Gerrit Graham, is forced to relive his nightmare when Chucky is resurrected by unknowing toy manufacturers. A series of horrific encounters and bloody murders culminates in explosive fashion when Boy meets Toy for a final showdown in a doll factory.

General

Japan: The Sword and the Chrysanthemum

The Discovery Channel 11.00pm
A look at how Japan's ancient traditions blend with new technology and modern trends. How has this combination of old and new helped shape the society and its people? The Samurai warrior is seen by the West as a paradox in Japanese society, combining an appreciation of beauty and high culture with aggression. Why is there such a fascination with this ancient tradition?

Sport

Sky Movies Gold 8.00pm

A loose, semi-improvised comedy from the late Hal Ashby starring Jon Voight (who also co-wrote) and Burt Young as a pair of hustlers who, in order to escape mobsters whose money they lost in a poker game, flee New York for Las Vegas. Once there, however, the pair can't resist scamming their way to instant gambling success, only to land themselves in further financial trouble. Also starring 1960s siren Ann-Margret.

General

A Change of Mind: Putting Back the Sparkle

The Learning Channel 12noon

This programme focuses on body-oriented psychotherapies which are based on the assumption that our thoughts, feelings and memories aren't just contained in our minds and brains, but in our bodies as a whole - in the way we walk, talk and express ourselves. In psychotherapy sessions we see how beating cushions helps some people discover themselves.

The Creature From the Black Lagoon

The Movie Channel
10.00am

A team of anthropologists on an expedition to South America find themselves face-to-face with a hideous humanoid fish who lurks beneath the murky waters of the Black Lagoon. One by one the members of the team are killed by the creature in a vain attempt by the bug-eyed beast to do away with the romantic competition for beautiful Julie Adams and her snazzy one-piece bathing suit. The prehistoric monster himself, created by Bud Westmore and Jack Kreven, was played underwater by swimming champion Ricou Browning. A sequel, The Creature Walks Among US, surfaced a year later.

General Women Coming Through

The Learning Channel
12midday

On International Women's Day this programme follows four women as they prepare career paths designed to take them to the top in British business management. The programme demonstrates how hard it is, even today, for women to succeed in the higher levels of management despite their abilities.

Three Men and a Little Lady

Sky Movies Plus 6.00pm
Tom Selleck, Steve
Guttenberg and Ted Danson return as Peter, Michael and Jack in this sequel to one of the most popular hit comedies of the 1980s. The unorthodox three-father family unit is thrown into turmoil when Mum Sylvia (Nancy Travis) announces her intention to marry slimey
English lover Edward (Christopher Casenove), thus taking five-year-old Mary (Robin Weisman), for whom they all feel a strong paternal affection, across the Atlantic and out of their lives for ever. Directed by Emile Ardolino.

General Maude

Sky One 2.45pm
Maude personified the new feminist of the 1970s when she came thundering onto TV screens in 1972. With her dominant personality, biting one-liners and masculine mannerisms, braburning Maude soon became a role model for women and a classic TV personality.
Beatrice Arthur of The Golden Girls fame stars as the formidable Maude.

Sport

Boots 'n' All

Sky Sports 10.30am
Eddie Hemmings and Mike Stephenson have long been attracting a hefty mailbag at Sky through forming a quick-witted double act that has entertained and won rugby league fans from all over the country. This programme shows them at their best offering player profiles, competitions, match
highlights and interviews.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

Pump Up The Volume

The Movie Channel 8.00pm

A sharply-written youth drama about high school misfit Mark (Christian Slater), a shy introverted student by day and a wild, uninhibited pirate radio DJ by night. Under the pseudonym of Hard Harry, Mark stirs up the students of Hubert Humphrey High, becoming a cult hero with his provocative late-night show, a mixture of off-beat music and obscene but insightful monologues, even though no-one knows his true identity. However, Nora (Samantha Mathis) a fledgling poet infatuated with the Hard Harry character, is determined to discover his true identity.

General

Boyz II Men Special

MTV 5.00pm

Boyz II Men have a name that bridges the gap between generations. Hailing from Philadelphia, USA, they come from the same blues-soul background that brought us Harold Melvin and the Blue Notes, the O'Jays and Patti LaBelle. They came together in 1988 at Philadelphia's High School of Creative and Performing Arts, where they developed their vocal and writing skills, and four years on have proved their worth on both sides of the Atlantic.

Sport

Motor-racing

Eurosport 11.00am

South African Grand Prix: motor-racing fans could not really ask for much more than Eurosport is offering in its Formula 1 coverage. The build-up to the first race of the season from Kyalami, South Africa, will be followed live and exclusively starting with today's practice session. Tomorrow (11.00am) there will be live coverage of the qualifying heats followed by live action of the race itself on Sunday (12noon) - and that will be the format for all of this season's races. One of the big talking points at this moment is how will Damon Hill do alongside Alain Prost for Williams-Renault.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

General

A Change of Mind: The Family Rules

The Learning Channel 12midday
 Many parents faced with a child who refuses to go to school would try to deal with the problem by themselves. But the Fox family decided instead to try psychotherapy. As the programme follows them through two sessions of family therapy their problems take on unexpected dimensions. This programme looks at this rapidly growing therapeutic technique and throws a new light on many of the common themes of family life.

Sport

Men's Skiing

Eurosport 12noon
 Eurosport has all the live action from the men's downhill in the Alpine Skiing World Cup at Sierra Nevada, Spain. But the channel's live winter sports coverage doesn't finish there today. At 1.00pm there will be live figure skating (free women) from the World Championships in Prague.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

Deathtrap

Sky Movies Gold 6.00pm
An effective exercise in cinematic suspense, adapted from the hit stageplay by Ira Levin. Michael Caine stars as a fading playwright who finds himself forced into stealing the hot new script from his assistant Christopher Reeve. However, in order to get away with the ultimate act of plagiarism, the desperate writer plots a perfect murder. Also starring Dyan Cannon and directed by Sidney Lumet.

General

Prince Weekend

Rebecca De Ruvo 7.00am and Kristiane Backer 1.30pm

His name is Prince, and he's funky. He is also a pop genius with a multitude of musical accolades to his name. His latest release with the New Power Generation is The Symbol album. From rock and soul to folk and funk, his latest offering tells the operatic tale of a rock star and a princess - the inspiration for the music is attributed to Mayte, the newest member of the NPG. This MTV Weekend celebrates one of the world's most prolific stars and features tributes from the music world, rare footage and videos.

Sport

Football

Sky Sports 1.00pm
Manchester United v Aston Villa. United again look like title favourites but who knows what psychological scars they carry from last season when they tripped themselves up so horribly and allowed Leeds to waltz off with the honours. The United board will certainly not see the funny side of the manager they spurned, Ron Atkinson, winning the Premier League for Villa. Men to watch: the titanic Paul McGrath in Villa's defence; the Reds' Eric Cantona, seeking another championship medal with his new outfit.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

CMT Europe

CMT Europe offers 24 hours a day of the very latest country music specifically for a European audience. It provides non-stop chart-topping hits and new video releases by such artists as Billy Ray Cyrus, Marty Stuart, Mary-Chapin Carpenter, Randy Travis and Alan Jackson

Films

The Adventures of Robin Hood

Bravo 12midnight

At the time this rollicking swashbuckler was Warner Brothers' most expensive film, boasting glorious Technicolor, lavish sets and a brilliant climactic duel between Errol Flynn and Basil Rathbone. Olivia De Havilland is excellent as Maid Marian, ably assisted by cockney character actress Una O'Connor.

General

Earthfile: Space Sciences

The Discovery Channel 5.30pm

A fascinating insight into the space age technology of the future. 'Biosphere Two', the mini-world built under a glass bubble in the Arizona Desert, was designed as a prototype for space colonies. How is the experiment progressing? And a look at 'virtual reality', which, through computer graphics, makes it possible to create the illusion of three dimensional spaces. As well as the obvious leisure applications of this amazing new technology there are a number of benefits to space sciences, medicine and architecture.

Caged Terror

HVC 10.00pm
Richard and Janet, a city couple on a hiking trip in the forest, rest for the night at an apparently abandoned farmhouse. Much to Richard's annoyance, Janet admits two strangers to the house, and this is the start of a frightening nightmare that is to have devastating consequences for him. Starring Percy Harkness and Elizabeth Suzuki.

General

The Global Family

The Discovery Channel 4.00pm
Discovery's popular nature series continues, showing how the fate of every species has an important effect on the global environment. One of the most intriguing animals featured this month is the Komodo dragon, known as the last of the dinosaurs. These huge, ten-foot long monitor lizards live on the island of Komodo in Indonesia and are the world's largest surviving reptiles. In the past these strange creatures were thought to be Gods, and the mere mention of the island, once a penal colony, struck fear into the hearts of the prisoners being sent there.

Sport

The Footballers' Football Show

Sky Sports 9.00pm
Players, managers, refs and officials chew the footballing fat for two hours in the show designed for the football crazy. Issues, controversies, goals and even a bit of humour get a look in. If you want something to talk about in the pub, then don't miss The Footballers' Football Show. Includes Soccer News at 10.00pm.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

Green Card
The Movie Channel 6.00pm
An affable romantic comedy which marked Gerard Depardieu's English-speaking debut. The hulking Gallic star plays a French immigrant who, while living and working illegally in New York, marries native Andie MacDowell. She needs a husband in order to take possession of a dream apartment, but once the cursory ceremony is over the pair go their separate ways, neither one intending to see the other again until a government investigation into fraudulent charges forces them back together. As the couple frantically attempt to get to know one another and create some semblance of a marital history, it soon becomes clear that, while the pair are as different as two people could possibly be, a trace of mutual love lurks beneath the initial friction.

General

UFO Cover Up
The Discovery Channel 4.00pm
Are we alone in the universe or have alien spacecraft been visiting Earth for decades? UFO Cover Up explores the controversy surrounding an alleged government cover-up of the existence of unidentified flying objects. The programme explores a variety of incidents, ranging from UFO sightings to actual contact with alien beings. Also featured are previously classified documents and interviews with high-ranking officials of the United States government. What are they trying to hide, and why?

Sport

Asian Open Snooker
Sky Sports 10.00pm
From the Imperial Queens Park Hotel in Bangkok. First place wins £30,000 and the total prize is £180,000 with 64 players chasing it. Stephen Hendry, Steve Davis and Jimmy White are taking part but the most popular face will belong to Thailand's James Wattana - a pin-up star and the nation's most famous sportsman.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

General

Gary Moore and Friends: After Hours

MTV 11.00pm

Gary Moore is one of the world's youngest blues veterans. A tearaway talent from the late 1960s, a band-hopping guitar hero of the 1970s and a successful solo star of the 1980s, Gary began the 1990s with the release of the hugely successful Still Got The Blues. This album sold more than three million copies world-wide and achieved platinum status in countries such as Germany, Sweden, Holland, Japan and Australia, not to mention gold awards in America and Britain, where the title track was a smash hit single. After Hours is Moore's latest instalment, and was recorded in Paris and various parts of America in 1991. Gary describes it as 'less of a rock record with a blues flavour, and more of a blues record with a rock flavour'. Tonight's MTV Special sees Gary in concert at London's Town & Country Club.

Mr Denning Drives North

Bravo 8.00pm
 The third in the current series of films starring British character actor Sir John Mills. Mills stars as Mr Denning, one of the most successful aircraft manufacturers in the country and a model husband to boot. That is until he accidentally kills a criminal who is in love with his daughter. A good suspense melodrama that reveals the mental torment of a family trying to hide a terrifying secret. Also starring Phyllis Calvert and Sam Wanamaker.

General

The Roux Brothers: Souffles

The Learning Channel 1.00pm
 For the first time on television, a whole programme devoted to souffles. Albert and Michel show mandarin and cointreau souffle, souffled crepes with limes and iced strawberry souffle and finish with one of the specialties of Albert's restaurant, Le Gavroche: Souffle Suisse with mushrooms.

Sport

IndyCars

Eurosport 4.00pm
 The IndyCar Grand Prix from Surfers Paradise, Queensland, Australia, is Nigel Mansell's first serious outing since his controversial and daring move from Formula 1. Many experts have voiced their concerns about the dangers of hurtling round the oval circuits at over 200mph between concrete walls. But this opening race should be more to F1 World Champion's liking because it is on one of the series' road circuits.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

The Slender Thread

The Movie Channel 12noon
 Oscar-winning director Sydney Pollack's directorial debut is the tense tale of a young woman (Anne Bancroft) who makes a suicide bid by overdosing on sleeping pills. However, a last minute change of heart leads to her calling a Crisis Centre where college volunteer Sidney Poitier attempts to keep her alive and on the line until a rescue team can reach her. Also starring Telly Savalas.

General
The Trials of Rosie O'Neill

Sky One 9.00pm
 Recently divorced Rosie O'Neill, played by Sharon Gless, gives up her prestigious Beverly Hills law practice to start a new career as a public defender in downtown Los Angeles. She finds herself living in high society while working with the people on the streets. Her two worlds, and the many ways in which they collide, create The Trials of Rosie O'Neill. Starring Edward Asner, Robert Wagner, Dorian Harewood, Ron Rifkin, Lisa Barnes and Lisa Rieffel.

Sport
One-Day International Cricket - Live

Sky Sports 2.30pm, 1.00pm
 West Indies v Pakistan: how will the West Indies cope with the explosive pace and late swing of Waqar Younis, one of the world's finest contemporary bowlers? And how will the World Cup winners handle the most feared strike bowlers of the West Indies? All the action live.

Films

'Til Death Us Do Part

Sky Movies Plus 8.00pm
Not the usual antics with Warren Mitchell, but a thriller in which a crooked pair of lovers murder the woman's husband to collect the life insurance. Although young DA Vincent Bugliosi (Arless Howard) is convinced of their guilt, no clues exist to link them to the crime, and it's not until the pair carry out their next fatal sting that the ever-watchful investigator can make his move. Also starring Rebecca Jenkins and Treat Williams, best-remembered as the corrupt union boss in Once Upon a Time in America.

General Games World

Sky One 6.00pm
Gamesworld takes the 1990s videogame phenomenon into a new dimension. It's essential viewing for video and computer game fans, offering excitement and fun for those watching as much as those taking part.

Sport Irish Open - Live

Sky Sports 2.00pm, 7.00pm
Snooker has returned to Sky Sports this month with the Asian Open and with today's Irish Open. The live coverage starting at 2.00pm features the first session and will carry through the five successive days of action until the final on Monday.

City Slickers
The Movie Channel 8.00pm
A wise-cracking, male-bonding comedy starring Billy Crystal, Daniel Stern and Bruno Kirby as three middle-aged men who, in order to combat their respective mid-life crises, sign up for a two week 'vacation' on a Western-style ranch. The cowards become cowboys when they are forced on a perilous cross-country cattle drive, with Oscar-winner Jack Palance along for the ride. Directed by Ron Underwood.

General

Mysteries of the Pyramids
The Discovery Channel 6.00pm
Standing proud and magnificent on the banks of the Nile is the only remaining Wonder of the Ancient World - the Great Pyramids and Sphinx at Giza. Built more than 5000 years ago, the Great Pyramids have withstood the ravages of time to prevail in beauty and magic, even today. Omar Sharif takes an unprecedented look at the secret passageways and chambers of these colossal and mysterious monuments.

Sport

Brazilian Grand Prix
Eurosport 3.00pm
The Brazilian Grand Prix from Interlagos was the setting for Nigel Mansell's third successive opening win of last season. Williams' dominance was underlined by Mansell's team-mate Riccardo Patrese setting the circuit's lap record. It is a course where overtaking is difficult as Michael Schumacher discovered in the most frustrating way by being stuck behind Ayrton Senna in a faltering McLaren. Schumacher eventually finished third in his Benetton-Ford behind Mansell and Patrese, which was his final position in the drivers' championship. His first grand prix victory eventually came in the Belgian grand prix, a triumph which gave a boost to his confidence that he is carrying over into this season.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

Conagher

Sky Movies Plus 6.00pm

A stirring Western yarn based on a novel by Louis L'Amour, starring Sam Elliott as Conagher, a tough, honourable cowboy who becomes the saviour of Evie Teale (Katharine Ross) when she and her family are left alone following the disappearance of her husband. Having started a decent life for herself and her children, Evie finds Conagher riding into her life just when she needs him the most. Stars Elliott and Ross share screenwriting duties on this romantic period saga which also stars the much-underrated Billy Green Bush.

General

Beyond 2000

The Discovery Channel 6.00pm

Discovery's award-winning science and technology series continues with a brand new season of programmes featuring the world's latest breakthroughs and technical innovations. What will life be like in the future? Medical students could be practising on realistic dummies that bleed and even die! Holidaymakers may well be popping pills for that perfect safe tan and there could even be tourist trips to Mars! Will this red planet eventually be transformed into a second home for the human race?

Sport

PFA Annual Awards Dinner

Sky Sports 8.30pm

Professional footballers gather to salute their choices of Player and Young Player of the Year. The awards have been handed out since 1974 when Norman Hunter (Leeds) won the senior gong. Other recipients of that prize have been Pat Jennings (Spurs 1976), Liam Brady (Arsenal 1979), Kenny Dalglish (Liverpool 1983) and Gary Lineker (Everton 1986). Last season's winners were the Manchester United duo Gary Pallister and Ryan Giggs. So who is it to be tonight? Eric Cantona or Alan Shearer? What about Nick Barmby for Young Player of the Year?

Monday continues overleaf...

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

Films My Bloody Valentine

Sky Movies Gold 10.00pm

The teenagers of an American smalltown mining community are in for a surprise when a maniacal miner pick-axes a variety of the juvenile losers to death in an assortment of unpleasant but admirably inventive styles. One of the best of the rash of late 1970s early 1980s Hallowe'en clones starring Paul Kelman, Lori Hallier and Neil Affleck.

General The English Garden

The Discovery Channel 8.30pm

The English Garden traces the history of the English gardening tradition, from earliest times to the present day. In the mid-eighteenth century English gardeners astounded the whole of Europe. The gardens they created were unique. Suddenly within 50 years England had made her greatest contribution to the visual arts. Presented by Sir John Gielgud, the series makes use of extensive helicopter footage to display the magnificent acreage of England's great gardens to the best effect.

Films Ben Hur

Bravo 4.00pm

This $15million remake of the 1927 silent classic won 11 Oscars (12 if you regard sound and visual special effects as separate), including Best Film and Best Actor for Charlton Heston. The sea battle and climactic chariot race are reason enough to watch this four-hour masterpiece, released at the time with the subtitle of 'A Tale of the Christ'. Also starring Jack Hawkins and Stephen Boyd, and directed by William Wyler.

General In Celebration of Trees

The Discovery Channel 4.00pm

Exploring man's relationship to the trees and forests of North America. From the Pacific Northwest, whose bristle-cone pines are estimated to be more than 5000 years old to the grandeur of the Rockies and the wooded wilderness of Appalachia, discover the living spirit of trees. The ecological balance of the Earth's atmosphere is dependent on the forests of the world. Our life on Earth is dependent on their survival.

Sport International Football

Eurosport 10.00pm

Wales have had a stiff test in facing Belgium away in their bid to reach the 1994 World Cup finals. Tonight's programme reviews that fixture along with Scotland's group members Switzerland at home to Portugal and Euro-champs Denmark at home to Spain.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

How do Ivan Lendl's chances rate in the ATP tennis tour?

Screen TEST

Children's Channel presenter Michael Winsor would like to be taller. Next month his wish comes true! Michael's head will be in the clouds when he joins the hot-air balloon race raising sponsorship money for ChildLine

Michael Winsor plays it by ear

What would you change about your personal appearance?

I would like to be taller so that I could see over other peoples' heads and see the stage at pop concerts. With whom do you most like being?

Friends – the female ones!

When have you been most happy?

Singing The Music of Andrew Lloyd Webber in front of thousands in an open air concert in Seville!

When have you been least happy?

When my dog died! I was about 12 and he had been with me all my life!

Under what circumstances would you be dishonest?

I don't know as I can be, but a million pounds in a suitcase outside my front door would be hard to take to the police!

What is your least appealing characteristic?

I am always bright and energetic first thing in the morning to the annoyance of everyone around me who is still half asleep!

What characteristic in others annoys you the most?

I hate people who are lazy and have no get up and go – I like a bit of Umph! (Don't we all.)

Who do you most admire?

Roy Castle – he is the most talented person I have ever met – and the way he has recovered from cancer shows what a great character he is!

Who do you least admire?

Jason Donovan and Aussie soap stars! Talent-free zones!

What is your favourite film and/or TV programme?

Alien – the original one – I hated the two sequels!

What is your least favourite film and/or TV programme?

Eldorado – I watched one episode and got food poisoning!

Who is your favourite actor/performance?

My favourite actor is Dustin Hoffman – and my favourite actress is Angela Lansbury.

Who is your least favourite actor/performance?

Politicians – they are all terrible actors!

What is your favourite record/piece of music?

My favourite record is Italian Restaurant by Billy Joel and my favourite piece of music is an entire musical, Into the Woods, by Stephen Sondheim about all the pantomime characters getting into each others' story and Cinderella goes off with the WRONG Prince Charming!

What is your least favourite record/piece of music?

Any Barbra Streisand – I find her too self-indulgent!

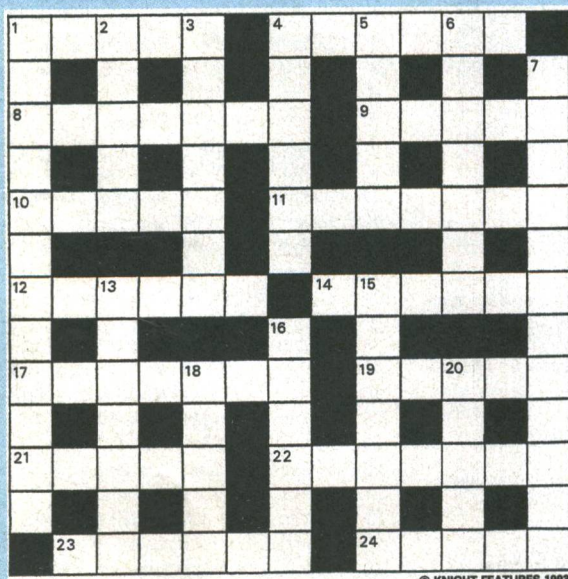

Where do you see yourself in five years' time, best/worst scenario?

Best – In the leading role of a West End musical which would then transfer to Broadway!

Worst – Out of work, on the dole – and with no money!

Congratulations to January's £50 winner Mr MA Nielsen of Southampton

To mark the 50th anniversary of one of history's most daring air raids.

The Royal Air Forces Association proudly announces

Actual wingspan 8 1/4 inches.

A superb 1:144 scale replica of one of the most historic aircraft of all time—the uniquely modified Lancaster, hero of the Dambusters raid.

THE DAMBUSTERS

The unique Lancaster bomber of 617 Squadron...an authentic scale replica...crafted in fine pewter.

On a moonlit night almost 50 years ago, the 'Dambusters' took to the skies. These gallant aircrews, flying one of the most remarkable aircraft in combat history, embarked upon a heroic mission—an attack on the massive dams of one of Germany's most vital industrial centres.

To commemorate the 50th anniversary of this historic operation, the Royal Air Forces Association is issuing this meticulously crafted, scale pewter replica of the actual 'Dambusters' Lancaster.

An elite squadron—a unique aircraft

Specially selected for a campaign of the utmost secrecy, the skill and courage of 617 Squadron will live forever in the history of warfare. Their outstanding bravery took the British offensive to the very heart of the enemy.

The Lancasters of 617 Squadron were uniquely modified to carry the famous 'bouncing bombs' which would strike their targets with such unfailing accuracy. The 'Dambusters' released their bombs within precise limits of speed and altitude never before attempted. The result was devastating—a massive blow to Germany's industrial power.

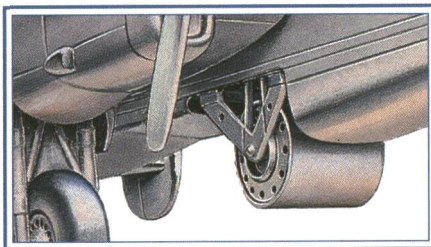

Authentic scale and detail

The 'Dambusters' Lancaster is a triumph of craftsmanship. Considerable care has been taken to achieve the highest possible accuracy of detail. Each feature has been painstakingly recreated, including the specially modified undercarriage designed to carry the remarkable bombs.

The master model is created by hand, to 1:144 scale. Then, each replica is cast and hand-assembled with great care by English pewter craftsmen. Each is then polished to the lustrous finish characteristic of fine pewter. Finally, every replica is inspected individually before despatch to ensure it meets stringent quality specifications.

An outstanding tribute in fine pewter

This handsome replica is a lasting tribute to an intrepid squadron and an historic aeroplane. It's all the more valuable as part of the proceeds will support the Royal Air Forces Association's vital work in providing sheltered housing for ex-RAF servicemen and women.

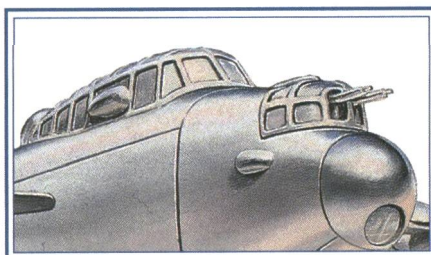

Ingeniously designed undercarriage—20 Lancasters were specially adapted to carry these huge bombs, slung between two V-shaped arms.

Here then, is an opportunity to express your personal appreciation while acquiring a superb replica that you will be proud to display.

Also, as an owner of 'The Dambusters' you will later have the opportunity, but not the obligation, to purchase other replicas of Bombers of World War II.

Guaranteed satisfaction

If for any reason you are not fully satisfied with your scale pewter 'Dambusters' replica, you may return it within 30 days for replacement or refund.

Each replica is expertly hand assembled, polished to a lustrous finish and individually inspected before shipment.

Important to order soon

Because of the large amount of hand craftsmanship in these replicas, the price of £58.50 (plus £2.50 p&p) for each replica represents remarkable value.

You need send no money now. You will be billed in two convenient monthly instalments of £30.50 each, the first in advance of shipment. To avoid disappointment, return the reservation application today to Danbury Mint, Cox Lane, Chessington, Surrey KT9 1SE.
